A BRIEF HISTORY OF ACLEAD COLLEGE

FIFCOP Bible Institute (FBI) was the first name of the school which was base in Bagong Barrio, Caloocan City. The school caters believers of Christ who wants to serve the Lord as pastor in different churches. When the FIFCOP Mission acquired a piece land in Muñoz Nueva Ecija, they transferred the school in the said province.

To cater not just FIFCOP churches the leaders of the Mission decided to change the name from FIFCOP Bible Institute to Christian School of Theology. When Mrs Marianita Teves was the head of the school, she decided to open up a Kindergarten to support the pastors and their ministries. And she named it as Integrated Child Development Center (ICDC).

In 2009 the school was registered to Securities and Exchange Commission as Asian Center for Leadership Education and Development, Incorporated. And in 2011 its name was amended to ACLEAD College, Inc.

The school was able to acquire its permission from the Department of Education (DepEd) to operate Kindergarten was able to get its Government Recognition for Pre-Elementary course in 2009, with Recognition number E-018 s. 2009. After three years its Government Recognition for Elementary course was granted with number E-082 s. 2011. From then on, enrollment is gradually increasing and development in structure happened.
