Fundamentals of Data Management and Reporting using Spreadsheet Training Workshop - June 28 to 30, 2022

Master the use of Spreadsheet (MS Excel). Spreadsheet has been an important tool across the academe, public and private sector. However, many are not using this tool effectively. In this training course, participants will learn how to manage and present their data efficiently. Spreadsheet are not being used solely for accounting and finance. It has too many capabilities such as data analysis and reporting.

Everyone in an organization uses Spreadsheet. Allow us (STRATONE), to train you on how to use Spreadsheet effectively.

Objectives:

- Analyse relationships across information and data
- Organise your company's data in a more structured manner
- Analyse your data effectively using various techniques
- Select the appropriate chart for your data
- Learn how to use Pivot table

Note: To access the course outline, description, and program of activities, send us an email.
